Sun 'n Fun Beckons Spring

It is time! Time to polish the exhibit booth, print the new spectacular display photos, and fluff the majestic angel wings. The Heaven's Landing Crew is preparing to take the 40th Sun 'n Fun International Fly-In & Expo by storm! The Expo is one of the biggest most popular fly-in shows of the year drawing tens of thousands of participants from all over the world.

Sun 'n Fun also kicks off Heaven's Landing's heaviest marketing period. "The seeds that are planted at Sun 'n Fun always bear fruit," Heaven's Landing developer Mike Ciochetti explains. "We know living in an aviation community like Heaven's Landing, with your plane and surrounded by spectacular landscape, is an ultimate dream for aviation enthusiasts, and we recognize that our clients realize their dreams at different stages of their lives. Sun 'n Fun helps us nurture this process. Some people we meet will actually beat us home, excited to see the development with their own eyes; and, some may visit a few years down the road. But the greatest part of attending Sun 'n Fun is that our best and strongest relationships often start here."

For all vendors, the week-long celebration is an opportunity to interact with serious buyers, see old friends, and enjoy fantastic entertainment and activity all focused on the General Aviation Community.

If you haven't already, purchase your tickets today and treat yourself to a great show and a wonderful vacation in Lakeland, Florida, April 1-6. There are events planned to delight your entire family. One of the most popular, beyond a doubt, is the U.S. Navy Flight Demonstration Squadron, The Blue Angels. They are back in action and will fly April 4, 5, and 6 at 4:30pm.

And of course, you know Heaven's Landing has our own Angels. Stacy and Kaylie, will be at the exhibit (D/83-84) each day, and they look forward to taking photos and spending time with you and your family.

Spring is Bursting!

What a fantastic time to be in Rabun County! Everywhere you turn the beauty of the season is becoming apparent. Our short winter is over, and we are ready to be out and about. The "official" start of spring is just a few weeks away, but the early signs are already showing. Spring in the Northeast Georgia Mountains means gorgeous greens on the deciduous trees, bright white blooms, crisp blue skies, and almost constant activity. Here are a few places to see and visit:

Foxfire Living History Days ~ April 5– 12

See the days of pioneer Appalachia brought to life by local families and other friends as the Foxfire Museum & Heritage Center hosts Living History Day 2014. Adults and children will be dressed in 1800s period clothing, showcasing almost every facet of mountain life from 200 years ago. Cooking simple food in a stone fireplace, crafting wood furniture with hand tools, blacksmithing in a coal-fired forge, one-room schoolhouse classes covering the Appalachian "three Rs" (Readin', 'Ritin', and Religion), short church services, old-time kids' games, live traditional music — all of these activities (and likely more) bring the museum to life as volunteers recreate the unsophisticated and fulfilling lives of the hardy folks that made the majestic Southern Appalachians their home. Warrior Dash ~ April 12

Over a million Warriors have stormed The Battleground and raised $7.5 million and counting for St. Jude Children's Hospital. More than 150 Warrior Dashes have taken place on the most rugged terrain across six countries and four continents. We're no scientists, but that's a ton of mud, sweat and beer. Be prepared to get muddy, climb, crawl, & swim through obstacles, and have more fun than you can stand. (warriordash.com)
