Top 10 Reasons to visit in October and “Fall” in Love with

Heaven's Landing

1. Heaven's Landing is located in the southern tip of the Appalachian Mountains. While the pristine scenery is always breathtaking, it is especially stunning in the Fall. Whether riding in your car or flying in your plane, the vast array of color will surely capture your attention.

2. Rabun County and the area surrounding Heaven's Landing is home to more than 100 waterfalls and hiking trails. Enjoy the great outdoors on a trek through the Chattahoochee National Forest, in a perfect climate that is never too hot or too cold.

3. Enjoy the Fall festivities in the quaint nearby City of Clayton. Only a seven minute drive from Heaven's Landing, this beautiful little mountain town plays host to four of the top 100 rated restaurants in the United States.

4. Overlooking Lake Burton just minutes away from Heaven's Landing is the Waterfall Club, home to an exclusive 18 hole bent grass mountain golf course, spa, swimming, fitness center, and one of the most scenic dining vistas in the world. Just one more perk for being an owner at Heaven's Landing.

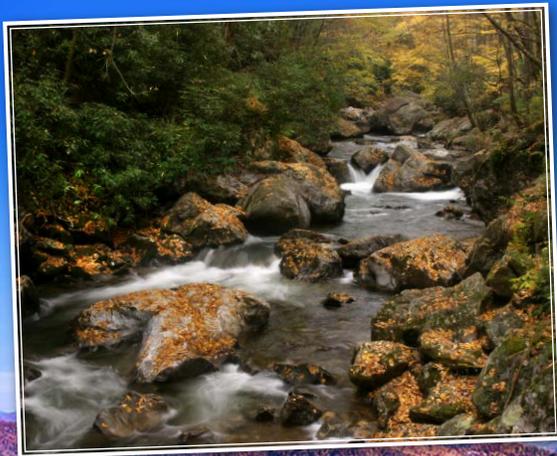

5. Fall camping is amazing in Rabun County! Plan for big adventure in our boundless beautiful mountains.

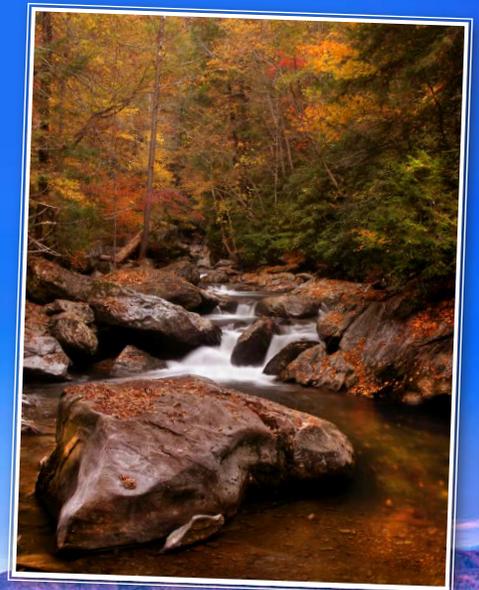

6. Known as the Grand Canyon of the east, the Tallulah Gorge is another great natural amenity that is just minutes away. The Tallulah Gorge State Park is a 2,689 acre facility located in Tallulah Falls, Georgia. Resting along the boundary line between Rabun and Habersham Counties, the park surrounds Tallulah Gorge, a 1,000 foot deep ravine formed by the continuous action of the Tallulah River. Six large waterfalls known as Tallulah Falls cause the river to drop more than 500 feet in just under one linear mile.

7. Fall Photography is at its best right here in the North Georgia Mountains. In its natural habitat North Georgia is said to be one of the most beautiful places to see and photograph! You don't have to be a professional to take amazing pictures with minimum effort!

8. Unlimited mountain streams and five large lakes provide for a fisherman's dream. Great fresh water fishing of all types is located just minutes away in virtually every direction.

9. The cool fall air makes for great star gazing this time of year. With minimal light pollution in our area, the clear skies at night are absolutely stunning. It is as if you can see every star in the galaxy.

10. Taking time to relax with family, friends, and fellow Heaven's Landing owners in the beautiful North Georgia Mountains. Fall is a time to reset, reflect, and take a break. Nothing is better for the soul.
